4 Aster, Victoria

The Nordic tea at Aster is anything but typical. A newly opened restaurant in the Victoria NOVA building, Aster offers a tea filled with delicacies which offer a taste of Norway such as open rye sandwiches topped with the likes of Atlantic prawn skagen or cured salmon and pickles. And the tea menu changes seasonally so you can expect fresh new dishes every month.

8 Savoy, The Strand

Popular tea spot the Savoy just introduced their new Silver Screen tea menu.

Prompted by their partnership with BAFTA they've created a menu with items that reflect the movies which have been nominated this year. This includes pastries such as a dark chocolate sponge soft caramel with salted caramel mousse for Fantastic Beasts or a Jackie inspired pink macaroon shells encrusted with almond dragees and garnished with vanilla cream.
